

Interview Consent and Release

Under One Roof: Writing Nonfiction at 2601 — for residents, neighbors, and family who agree to be interviewed or written about

James Mulhern · Silver Current Press · Taught in person at 2601 Pennsylvania Avenue, Philadelphia

What This Is For

A writer in the course Under One Roof would like to interview you, quote you, or write about you for a piece of nonfiction. This form records what you agree to. You may say no, agree to some things and not others, or change your mind later.

Your Choices

- ☐ I agree to be interviewed for this course.
- ☐ I agree that my words may be quoted in the writer's piece.
- ☐ I agree that the piece may be read aloud in class.
- ☐ I agree that the piece may appear in the class anthology, Under One Roof: Lives at 2601, shared with residents and the contributors' families and friends.
- ☐ Please use my real name.
- ☐ Please use a different name (pseudonym): _____
- ☐ Please leave out these details: _____

Your Rights

You see it first. You will be shown or read the finished piece before anyone outside the class sees it, and you may ask for corrections.

You may withdraw. You may withdraw your consent at any time before the anthology is shared, by telling the writer or the instructor.

Privacy. Notes and recordings are kept private, and recordings are deleted once you have approved the text. Apartment numbers, phone numbers, and schedules are never printed.
